

Policy: 2206
Chapter: Management Information Systems
Rule: JOLTS Access

Effective: 07/27/06
Replaces: N/A
Dated: N/A

A.R.S.	A.C.A.	A.A.C
A.R.S. § 41-2804,

The Arizona Department of Juvenile Corrections (ADJC) and the Arizona Administrative Offices of the Courts (AOC) have entered into an agreement to share data through their on-line information systems. ADJC shall have access to specific areas of the AOC Juvenile On-Line Tracking System (JOLTS) and AOC shall have access to areas of the ADJC Youthbase. Both ADJC and AOC shall ensure that their employees abide by all agreements signed by the respective Directors of both agencies.

Michael D. Branham, Director

Procedure Index:

2206.01 JOLTS Access

Form Index

2206.01A Instructions for Obtaining JOLTS Access
2206.01B ADJC Acknowledgement of Electronic Communications and Internet Access Policy
2206.01C AOC User Access Request
2206.01D Administrative Office of the Courts Request for Remote Access

Manual

2206.01E JOLTS Data Warehouse ADJC Access

Definitions:

- JOLTS Data Warehouse system – Contains delinquency information for juveniles from each of Arizona's 15 counties. It gives details on ADJC juvenile with K Numbers only.
- AS400 - Contains more detailed delinquency information than the JOLTS Data Warehouse access permits the user to obtain.
- JOLTS Data Warehouse Full access - Gives information on treatment and financial data fields.
- JOLTS Data Warehouse Restricted access - Does not give access to treatment and financial data fields.